

Right To Know Program

ANSWER KEY - RIGHT TO KNOW – GLOBAL HARMONIZED SYSTEM TEST

This pictogram (at right) when used in labeling a chemical agent means which of the following?

4. All of the above

What are the major changes to the Hazard Communication Standard?

4. All of the above

By what date are chemical manufacturers required to have updated all hazardous chemical labels?

3. June 1, 2015

This pictogram (at right) when used in labeling a chemical agent means?

3. It causes Acute Toxicity/ Poisonous.

Which of the following is NOT a requirement for a container label?

3. Chemical color

This pictogram (at right) when used in labeling a chemical agent means?

4. All of the above

If you find any unlabeled containers on USG property, what should you do?

3. Notify your supervisor or the Right to Know Coordinator

Which of the following elements on the right warns of flammable content?

2. B.

The first aid directions are located on which two documents?

Select all that apply. (Hint: You must select two.)

1. The label
2. MSDS / SDS sheets

Chemical container labels provide critical information that identifies hazards associated with the product.

1. True

The MSDS/SDS was designed to provide:

4. All of the above

Right To Know Program

ANSWER KEY - RIGHT TO KNOW – GLOBAL HARMONIZED SYSTEM TEST

If a MSDS/SDS is not received with a product you ordered, whom should you contact?

2. The vendor, your supervisor or your institution's Right to Know Coordinator

What information is NOT found on the MSDS/SDS sheet?

3. How to transport

Where are the MSDS/SDS to be stored?

3. In each facility and readily available to all employees

Material Safety Data Sheets (MSDS) or Safety Data Sheets (SDS) that are no longer current should be?

3. Kept in an archive file forever

If your job assignment requires you to work around or with a hazardous material, you must:

4. Be given the MSDS/SDS sheet for that chemical within 5 working days upon written request

From whom can you get information about the Hazardous Communication Program?

3. Right to Know Coordinator

What information is found in the Hazard Communication Program?

4. All of the above